President's Message

Quilting with HEART in February!

My HEART says thank you to Lynn for taking the gavel for the Jan. meeting. My sources tell me she did a great job but that doesn't mean I am going to stay in Fl.!! Kudos too, for the teams of members who presented our charitable projects. I hope that they inspired you to put some more HEART into your quilting by choosing to get on board with one of these special outreach programs.

As I reflect on how rich my life has become because of quilting, I am compelled to give a piece of my HEART to Veterans, children, the elderly shut-ins and those in hospice. We can bring much comfort and love with our gifts of quilting to someone whose health or happiness has been compromised.

Though El Nino has bid Florida some weather tricks it hasn't kept me from taking in a Quilt Show in Ft. Myers; attending the Naples Quilt Guild with fellow LTBQG friends Jeannette Kling, Sharon Koskus and Joyce Oldham, where Karen Kay Buckley from Pa. presented a great lecture on making borders and visiting a local Quilt Shop where Jenny Doan of Missouri Star Quilt Co. presented a trunk show/ lecture.

Quilting keeps us bound together, no matter the distance, so share the gift of quilting, it will help to keep you warm and gladden the HEARTS of others.

Bring quilts of red for Show N Tell and participate in the Batik Exchange Challenge for the Feb. meeting.

-----and Sew on,

Tresa Keys

Weather Notice

If the Petoskey schools are closed, the Friendship Center is closed. Therefore, there will not be a meeting. If inclement weather develops during the day of the meeting, check the website for updates. (www.ltbquiltersguild.org)

The January meeting of the Little Traverse Bay Quilters Guild was brought to order at 6:30 p.m. by Vice President Lynn Parrish.

Lynn welcomed members and guests to the meeting. She thanked the Liddicoats and other members for the wonderful Christmas luncheon, held on Dec. 12th.

She also thanked Julie and John Dyer, Lois Hart and Renee Prevo for providing this month's refreshments. Lynn continued with congratulations to those celebrating December and January birthdays.

Kay Geuder, Membership Chair, welcomed several visitors to the meeting, including Ann Ward, Robin Peters, and Anne Heier.

The November minutes were read with the correction to the fourth paragraph of the October minutes. Lynn Frazee made a motion to accept the minutes as corrected, seconded by Judith Ivan. A motion to accept the November and December Treasurer's Report was submitted by Marian Henthorne and seconded by Jesseca Haslock. Lynn introduced the Guild's new treasurer, Johanna Kutcher, with a reminder that budget items need to be submitted to her by February.

The Quilters Guild meeting will be cancelled if the Petoskey schools are closed. If inclement weather occurs later in the day, a notice will be posted on the website, www.ltbquiltersguild.org.

Lynn Parrish shared the sad news that Celeste Liska's husband, Bob, passed away unexpectedly on January 2nd. The Guild sent a sympathy card to Celeste; however, members individually may wish to contact her.

Ken Thompson announced that he and Sue presented a Quilt of Valor to a ninety-four-year-old female veteran of World War II; the first woman to receive one of the Quilts of Valor made by the Quilters Guild.

Linda Schofield, Program Chair, reviewed upcoming programs. February will be a batik fabric swap. If you wish to participate, please bring one yard of batik fabric to the meeting, along with a small pair of scissors. March's program will be game night. Also, on March 12, the Saturday following the meeting, there will be a stripping class held in the Charlevoix Library. The cost is $25. There will be additional details at the February meeting. Colleen Murtry, of Northwoods Quilts, will be the lecturer for May.

Lynn Parrish read a touching letter from William Huber, a Vietnam veteran, thanking the Guild for presenting him with a quilt. Judith Ivan reminded members that the Quilts of Valor Exhibit in the Charlevoix Library will continue to the end of February and encouraged everyone to see this wonderful exhibit.

The winner of the night's drawing was Ken Thompson.

The business meeting was adjourned at 6:47 p.m.

Respectfully submitted by
Helene Kleymeer
Recording Secretary

Quilts of Valor

Quilts of Valor will NOT meet on Feb. 3rd at Hearts to Holly Quilt Shop. Please bring finished quilt tops, striped pieces / parts or finished quilts to the guild meeting on Feb. 11th. The Quilts of Valor exhibit will continue to hang at the Charlevoix Library thru February. Be sure to drop by to see a variety of quilts this group has made, some of which honor local heroes who served in our armed forces. Our next workshop will be at Hearts to Holly on March 2nd. 10:00-2:30. What a great tangible way to send our gratitude to those who gave so much!

February Show and Tell

Remember to bring your show and tell to each meeting. We all enjoy admiring the quilts and other items that some of our members actually finish. (I seem to have only UFOs) Be sure to share a short description or story about your quilt, if you have one.

The Program Committee would like to start a new addition to Show and Tell. In addition to all of the great quilts you will show during show and tell, we would like to see your "Monthly Theme" quilts. For February, bring your red or heart quilts to show. We will post the month's theme in each newsletter. (Surprise, March will be green and clovers, haha)

Batik Fabric Exchange

February's Guild Activity

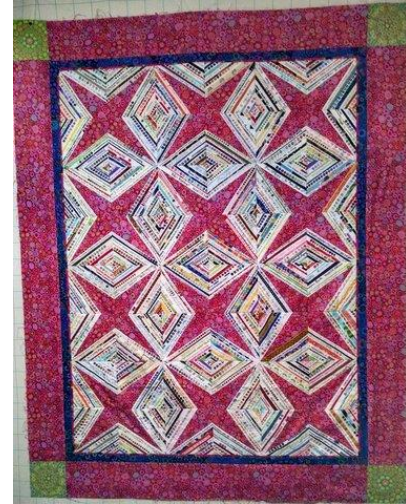

We saw this and thought it would be a fun activity for our group. There is nothing quilters like more than lots of different fabrics! Along with the exchange, we will look forward to seeing the finished projects at a later "reveal" date. I can't wait to see all of the different batiks and color combinations! Remember, it's more fun to join in.....Just bring the following to February's meeting.

- ✓ 1 FULL yard of quilt shop quality batik fabric. Make sure you love it, it will be your biggest piece.
DO NOT cut the yardage.
- ✓ Small pair of scissors

We will announce a little "challenge" for your fabrics, if you would like to participate. There will be a show and tell member vote with a prize for the winner. Incentive to make something. (to donate to peds quilts or placemats perhaps???) Shelley, Jeanette, and Linda

Saturday, March 12, 2016
10:00-4:00 at the Charlevoix Library
Instructors: Linda Schofield and Shelley Stallard
Cost: $25.00 includes the template!!

This is a great class where you can use up lots of scrap strips. (The more fabrics, the better.) Linda made her quilt with regular fabric strips and Shelley made hers with selvages (pictured). There will be instruction for both methods.

There is cutting that needs to be done before class, so be sure to sign up early and we will give you the requirement list. We will email you the requirement list if you pay by mail.

*Rare Threads:
Ancestral Inspirations
Call to Fiber Artists*

Be inspired by your textile heritage to create contemporary fiber art reflecting traditional techniques reinterpreted for now.

*September 20 - October 31, 2016
Opening Reception: September 20, 1:00-4:00 PM*

Ancestral Inspirations, a juried show at the Jordan River Arts Council, will showcase works inspired by our textile legacy. The 2016 show marks the ninth Rare Threads fiber exhibit! We invite all artists to submit up to three entries that reflect the work of our ancestors' hands. Please consider including the heirloom that inspired you among your entries. You are also strongly encouraged to include at least one piece for sale.

Do make plans to participate in this effort to honor our history. The deadline for submission is August 3, 2016. Entry forms will be available at www.jordanriverarts.com after January 6, 2016. We look forward to seeing how the "rare threads" of your heirlooms have inspired and informed your creativity!
